Crime Surveys User Conference 2019

Date: 5 December 2019
Location: ONS, Drummond Gate, London

Programme

9.45	Coffee and registration – please arrive by 10.00 to allow time for building security checks and escort to the room

Chair: Sarah King-Hele, UK Data Service

10.15	Welcome and introduction Sarah King-Hele, UK Data Service
10.20	Crime Survey for England and Wales: update on latest data and findings Joe Traynor, Office for National Statistics
10.45	Developing a burglary incidence rate index at the neighbourhood level using the CSEW James Hunter, Andromachi Tseloni, Nottingham Trent University, and Ken Pease, University of Derby
11.15	Tea/coffee

Chair: Joe Traynor, Office for National Statistics

11.35	Update on the Scottish Crime and Justice Survey Anna Saunders, Scottish Government
12.00	Update on commercial victimisation survey Rosanna Currenti, Home Office
12.25	Lunch

Chair: John Flatley, Home Office

13.25	Gangs, drugs and knife crime in London T. Kirchmaier, S. Machin and C. Villa-Llera, London School of Economics
13.55	Crime seriousness and attitudes towards the Police – UK and abroad Dainis Ignatans, University of Huddersfield
14.25	Valuing the relationship between drug use and well-being Anna Maccagnan, Tim Taylor and Mathew P. White, University of Exeter Medical School
14.55	Tea/coffee

Programme

Chair: Anna Saunders, Scottish Government

15.15   Assessing police efficiency and effectiveness using crime survey data in England and Wales
Xinyan Cheng, University of Bath

15.45   Modelling fear of crime area variation of people in England
Mohammad Shan-A-Khuda, Z. Cliffe Schreuders and Tom Cockcroft, Leeds Beckett University

16.15   Wrap up