

Family Finance Surveys User Conference 2018

Date: 26 June 2018

Location: Royal Statistical Society, London

Draft Programme

- 9.30 Coffee and registration
- Chair: Sarah King-Hele, UK Data Service
- 9.50 Welcome from the chair
- 9.55 Household Financial Survey: update and developments
Steven Dunstan and Fiona Massey, Office for National Statistics
- 10.40 An Expenditure-based approach to poverty in the UK
Sofiya Stoyanova, Well-being, Inequalities, Sustainability and Environmental Division, Office for National Statistics
- 11.05 Comparing mean and median food prices between the living cost and food survey, Kantar and a manual supermarket price rip
Christian J. Reynolds, University of Sheffield
- 11.30 Coffee/Tea
- Chair: Elaine Chamberlain, Office for National Statistics
- 11.50 Update on the Family Resources Survey and related series (HBAI, Pensioner Income Series, Take-up of Income-Related Benefits)
Donncha Burke, Department for Work and Pensions
- 12.10 The Disability Price Tag
Anel Touchet, Scope
- 12.35 Correcting the under-reporting of benefit income in HBAI
Adam Corlett, Resolution Foundation
- 13.00 Lunch
- Chair: Fiona Massey, Office for National Statistics
- 13.50 Update from the Wealth and Assets Survey team
Elaine Chamberlain, Office for National Statistics
- 14.15 Estimating the cost of problem debt to the public purse
Alexander Bowyer, National Audit Office
- 14.40 Cost of motoring and the Living Cost and Food Survey
David Leibling, Independent Researcher
- 15.05 Break

Chair: Donncha Burke, Department for Work and Pensions

- 15.15 Consumption of fruits and vegetables in the UK and the potential impact of Brexit on Nutrition
Gareth Gorst, University of Edinburgh and Cesar Revoredo-Giha, Scotland's Rural College
- 15.40 Estimating and comparing income distributions of singles in independent households and in Houses in Multiple Occupation at district level – one suggested use of FRS in the local housing context
Chihiro Udagawa, University of Cambridge
- 16.05 Consumer Confident Index and household Consumption
Zara Afraie, Brunel University
- 16.30 Close