

Introduction to the Family Resources Survey

Tuesday 4 October 2022, 09.30 –12.45

Programme

9.30 Welcome

9.35 About the Family Resources Survey

This session provides background information about the survey and survey design, including the impact of Covid-19 on data collection and outputs.

10.10 Accessing FRS data via the UK Data Service

This session talks through what FRS data you can access from the UK Data Service, including secure data via the SecureLab.

10.20 Comfort break

10.30 Issues when using the data and documentation

A look at key issues when using the data, such as how it is structured and units of analysis. The session will include a practical overview of the survey documentation and how to find relevant information for your analysis.

11.10 Practical and Comfort break

11.40 Using the data

This session explores how to go about using the FRS for different analyses using example research questions and demonstrations.

12.20 Questions and further information

12.45 Close