

Labour Force and Annual Population Surveys User Conference

Online, Thursday 27 January 2022

Programme

10.00 Welcome and introduction to the day
Nigel de Noronha, UK Data Service

Session 1: Keynote speaker

10.10 50 years of change in the UK labour market: job mobility and workers' experiences
Nye Cominetti, Resolution Foundation

See the Resolution Foundation event to launch the report: Changing jobs? How economic change affects the world of work, 6 January 2022

11.00 Break

Session 2: Data producer talks

Chair: Sarah King-Hele, UK Data Service

11.15 Update on the Labour Force and Annual Population Surveys
Martina Helme, Petya Kozhuharova, and Bob Watson, Office for National Statistics

11.45 Transformation of Labour Market statistics
James Harris, Office for National Statistics

12.15 Lunch

13:00 Parallel research talks 1

In these parallel sessions, there will be 20 minutes for each research talk and 5 minutes for questions after each talk. Stay in the main conference for sessions 3a and 4a or click the link in the conference instructions to join sessions 3b and 4b.

Session 3a

Chair: Martina Helme, Office for National Statistics

13.00 Segregation, segmentation and disability gaps in the labour market during Covid19: mental and physical health compared
Andrew Bryce (speaker), Mark Bryan, Jennifer Roberts, and Cristina Sechel, University of Sheffield, and Nigel Rice, University of York

13.30 Modelling the Differing Impacts of Covid-19 in the UK Labour Market
Magdalyn Okolo (speaker), and Chris Martin, University of Bath

14.00 Global Competition, UK Labour Market Adjustment and the Brexit Vote
Francesca Foliano (speaker) and Rebecca Riley, UCL Social Research Institute

Session 3b

Chair: Nigel de Noronha, UK Data Service

13:00 Do neighbourhood renewal funds improve local labor market outcomes? Evidence from England
Robert Calvert Jump (speaker), University of Greenwich, and Adam Scavette, Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia

13:30 Multiple low-paid employment: trends and characteristics of workers
Tanya Wilson, University of Glasgow and IZA

14:30 Break

14:45 Parallel research talk sessions 2

Session 4a

Chair: Martina Helme, Office for National Statistics

14:45 Armed forces veterans in the UK labour market
David Owen, University of Warwick

15:15 Immigration Stocks and Flows, APS1 and Electoral Register Data
Richmond Egyei (speaker), King's College London and Economic Statistics Centre of Excellence (ESCoE), Augustin de Coulon, King's College London, Institute of Labor Economics, IZA, Bonn, Centre for Vocational Education Research (LSE), and Economic Statistics Centre of Excellence (ESCoE), and Jonathan Wadsworth, Institute of Labor Economics, IZA, Bonn, Royal Holloway, University of London, Economic Statistics Centre of Excellence (ESCoE) and Centre for Economic Performance (LSE)

Session 4b

Chair: Nigel de Noronha, UK Data Service

14:45 Investigating the wellbeing returns from post-school education in Scotland
Gillian Wylie and Zoe Mackay, Skills Development Scotland, and James Miller, Scottish Government (speakers) and Rebecca McCartan and Alison Cairns, Skills Development Scotland, and Yulia Anopa, Scottish Government

15:15 Inequality of Opportunity in the United Kingdom: A Supervised Learning Approach
Bruno Fagnola, University of Glasgow

15.45 Conference wrap up

16.00 Close

Slides will be available on the event web page soon after the conference.