

Labour Force and Annual Population Surveys User Conference 2019

Date: 27 November 2019

Location: Lift London

Programme

- 09.45 Coffee and registration
- Chair: Sarah King-Hele, UK Data Service
- 10.15 Welcome and introduction
Sarah King-Hele, UK Data Service
- 10.20 Labour Force Survey update
Debbie Curtis, Office for National Statistics
- 10.40 Generating a synthetic version of LFS data for use outside of a secure environment
Iain Dove, Office for National Statistics
- 11.05 Tea/coffee
- 11.25 Interventions aimed at improving LFS response rates
Lina Lloyd, Office for National Statistics
- 12.05 The Return to a degree: New evidence based on the birth cohort studies and the Labour Force Survey
Gianna Boero, Dan Cook, Tej Nathwani*, Robin Naylor and Jeremy Smith, Higher Education Statistics Agency* and University of Warwick
- 12.35 Lunch
- Chair: Debbie Curtis, Office for National Statistics
- 13.35 The Persistence of Union Membership in Coalmining Areas
Rhys Davies, Cardiff University
- 14.05 The effects of long-term health conditions on sickness absence in the UK
Mark Bryan, Andrew Bryce and Jennifer Roberts, University of Sheffield
- 14.35 Tea/coffee
- 14.50 Is it all about the dollar? Teacher supply in England, evidence from the LFS, SWC and the DLHE
Joshua Fullard, Institute for Social and Economic Research, University of Essex
- 15.20 Using the APS to explore the planning profession – findings and challenges
Tom Kenny, Royal Town Planning Institute (RTPI)
- 15.50 Wrap up