

How to get here

The Administrative Data Research Centre Scotland is based in the Edinburgh Bioquarter, 9 Little France Road, EH16 4UX

If arriving at Edinburgh airport:

1) Airlink bus #100

Express bus service from the airport to Waverley Bridge (arriving near Princes Street and the main rail / bus stations)

Buy tickets at the airport information desk, or at the bus stop, or from the driver or in advance online

Frequency: Every 10 minutes.

Journey time: about 30 minutes (to Waverley Bridge).

Then follow directions from Waverley station (below).

2) Alternative: taxi from the airport. Cost £25 - £30 (approx.)

A journey to the city centre typically takes about 25 minutes. Travelling to ADRC directly from the airport takes about 30mins, depending on traffic.

If arriving at Waverley train station:

Walk to North Bridge and take any of the following buses travelling south:

#49, #33 or the #8 to the Royal Infirmary.

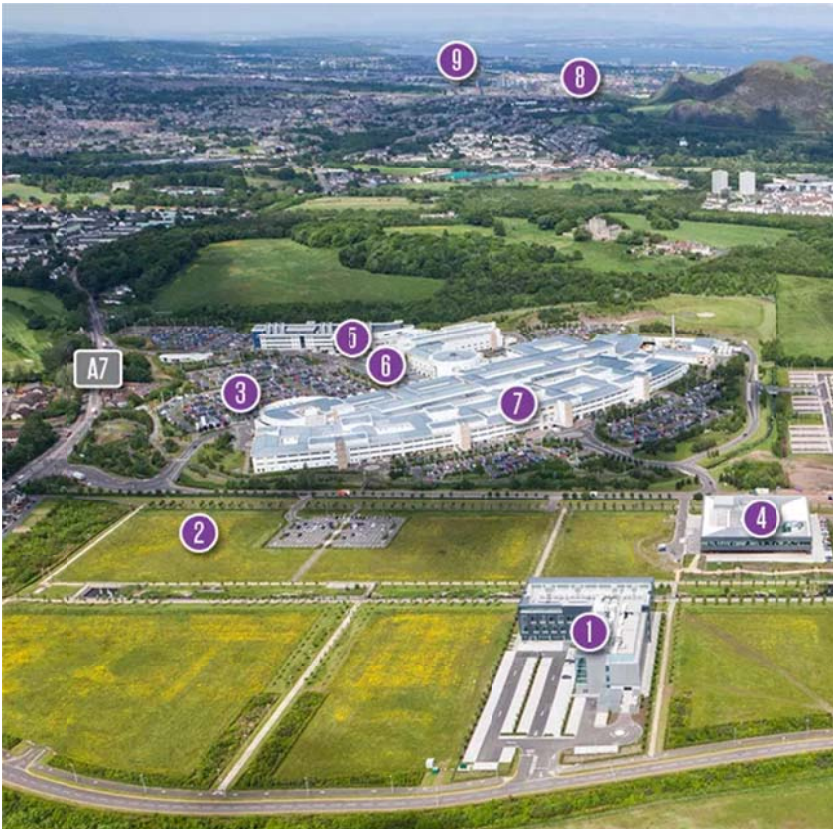

Journey time: about 30 minutes.

Finding us at 9 Bioquarter:

Disembark from bus at 'Royal Infirmary' stop.

Walk away from the hospital (building 7 on map 1), towards Little France Drive, going to the left (north eastern side) of the MRC Centre for Regenerative Medicine (building 4 on the map 1). Follow the dotted pink pathway suggested on map 2 in order to avoid the construction site. We are on the 2nd floor of Number 9, through the wooden main door to the left when you arrive in the 2nd floor lobby the elevators/stairwell.
