

USING SECONDARY DATA IN RESEARCH

February 7, 2018 9.45am to 4.00pm

Engineers House
The Promenade, Clifton Down
Bristol
BS8 3NB

Programme*

09:45-10:00	Coffee/Tea
10:00-10:10	Introduction and welcome
10:10-10:30	Use of business data in research: Prof Helen Simpson, University of Bristol
10:30-10:50	The use of a statistical analysis assistant for secondary data analysis: Prof. Bill Browne, Centre for Multilevel Modelling, University of Bristol
10:50-11:10	Use of Census data in social work research: Dinithi Wijedasa, University of Bristol
11:10-11:25	Coffee/Tea
11:25-11:55	Introduction to the UK Data Service: Dr Sarah King-Hele, UK Data Service
11:55-12:15	One in a Million: A primary care consultations archive: Dr Rebecca Barnes, University of Bristol
12:15-12:35	Qualitative secondary data: Spotlight on data from the secret lives of 4-year olds: Dr Debbie Watson and Hannah Brana-Martin, University of Bristol
12:35-13:35	Lunch
13:35-13:55	An introduction to the ALSPAC resource: a multi-generation study spanning a quarter of a century: Dr Alison Teyhan, University of Bristol
13:55-14:15	Trajectories of depressive symptoms from childhood to young adulthood in ALSPAC: Dr José Lope Lopez and Alex Kwong, University of Bristol
14:15-14:35	Introduction to CLOSER (Cohort &amp; Longitudinal Studies Enhancement Resources): Prof. Alison Park, Director, CLOSER, UCL Institute of Education
14:35-14:55	There and Back Again: Using national insurance data to estimate commuting costs: Isabel Stockton, University of Bristol
14:55-15:10	Coffee/ Tea
15:10-15:30	ONS Research Support and Data Access Service: Office of National Statistics
15:30-15:50	Returns to workplace training for male and female employees and implications for the gender wage gap. A quantile regression analysis: Rossella Icardi and Anna Hagglund, University of Bath
15:50-16.00	Closing remarks