

Facilitate Open Science Training for European Research

RESEARCH DATA MANAGEMENT AND OPEN DATA

6-7 October 2015
University of Manchester, UK

Workshop materials: <http://1drv.ms/1Jm68W5>

INTRODUCTION

Veerle Van den Eynden, UK Data Service

UK Data Service

Background

- FOSTER
- CESSDA
- UK Data Service
- Methods NorthWest

Trainers

- Veerle Van den Eynden, UK Data Service, University of Essex
- Libby Bishop, UK Data Service, University of Essex
- Irena Vipavc Brvar, Slovenian Social Science Data Archives (ADP)
- Steen Andersen, National Archives/Danish Data Archive (DDA)
- Martin Donnelly, Digital Curation Centre, University of Edinburgh

Programme - 6 October 2015

- I: Introduction to data management and open data
- 10.00-10.30 Introductions
- 10.30-11.15 Data Management in an Open World: the data sharing agenda, the policy landscape, and some useful resources
- Break
- 11.30-12.45 Reuse and sharing of research data, good practice (quantitative and qualitative data)
- Lunch
- II: Managing and sharing data in research with human participants
- 13.30-13.45 Research scenario and dataset setting (HIV Uganda)
- 13.45-14.15 Legislation and ethical landscape
- 14.15-15.15 Informed consent for data sharing and reuse
- Break
- 15.30-16.30 Anonymisation of quantitative and qualitative research data
- 16.30-16.50 Access and licencing of data
- 16.50-17.00 Task: develop a data management plan for your doctoral research
- 17.00-18.00 Drinks and nibbles

Programme - 7 October 2015

- III: Data handling, and preparation
- 9.30-10.30 Handling quantitative data and preparing for sharing and reuse, including data cleaning
- 10.30-11.15 Data documentation and contextual descriptions
- Break
- 11.30-12.15 Handling qualitative data and preparing for sharing and reuse: transcription and data listing
- Lunch
- IV: Data publishing, incl. open data
- 13.00-13.45 Publish research data in a data repository, archive or journal
- V: Data Management Planning
- 13.45-15.00 Discuss and fine-tune your data management plan
- 15.00-15.30 Wrap up and final discussion