

Exercise: Licensing and Access Controls

Explore each of the datasets below and identify:

1. What access conditions apply to each of these datasets?
2. What licence applies to these datasets?
3. For the collections that are safeguarded, could they be made more open, or what would be required for these datasets to be made open?

Datasets:

1. Cragg, Lucy and Gilmore, Camilla (2017). Skills underlying mathematics: When is working memory important for arithmetic. [Data Collection]. Colchester, Essex: UK Data Archive. 10.5255/UKDA-SN-852627 (<http://reshare.ukdataservice.ac.uk/852903/>).
2. Attridge, N., Noonan, D., Wainwright, E., Eccleston, C., Keogh, E., 2015. Dataset for "Headache impairs attentional performance: an extension and replication". University of Bath. <https://doi.org/10.15125/BATH-00123> (<https://researchdata.bath.ac.uk/123/>).
3. Filik, Ruth and Leuthold, Hartmut (2017). Examining the emotional impact of verbal irony. [Data Collection]. Colchester, Essex: UK Data Archive. 10.5255/UKDA-SN-852385 (<http://reshare.ukdataservice.ac.uk/852385/>).
4. Canessa, Andrew (2017). Bordering on Britishness. [Data Collection]. Colchester, Essex: UK Data Archive. 10.5255/UKDA-SN-852694 (<http://reshare.ukdataservice.ac.uk/852694/>).

